

SATURDAY WORKSHOPS

first.light

OVERFLOW BRAMPTON

STUDENTS

LOCATION: Prayer Room

1:00PM -
2:00PM

BLAIR MERCER
Lead Pastor Alliston Pentecostal Church

I responded, now what?!

Responding to a message is a wonderful first step, but what happens now? In this workshop we will explore the value of your decision and explore some practical first steps as you begin your relationship with Jesus.

2:15PM -
3:15PM

MAGNA MOLINARO
Youth Pastor Calvary Church Barrie

Living in the Light.

Sometimes when we think about the light, it can make us feel unworthy, like we should hide because of the darkness in us. Instead, we are welcomed into the light by Jesus. Having Him in our lives produces things that are good, right and true.

3:30PM -
4:30PM

NELLY LATCHMAN
Missions Canada Worker: Windsor University

Jesus after High School.

What's Next? Your faith is real and valuable. Let's explore what your relationship with God can and will look like as you finish high school. It is possible for you to have a vibrant, growing faith in the next step of your journey.

PASTORS

LOCATION: Youth Room

1:00PM -
2:00PM

OLU JEGEDE
Lead Pastor at Christian Centre Church

Mentoring Beyond Moments

What could your ministry look like if it went beyond a quick two hours on a weeknight? Join Pastor Olu as he shares about how his church is raising up a generation of students through real-life mentorship.

2:15PM -
3:15PM

ELDON WRIGHT
Master's College & Seminary

Mental Health in Student Ministry

Navigating the ever-changing landscape of Mental Health needs within Student Ministry can be challenging. This workshop is an introductory look at how to recognize needs, make accommodations and explore referrals in order to serve our students in the best possible way.